of Outlawry.
Outlawry is the punishment of him who being Called law to Answer for a Crime, does Contumaciously Refuse to Appear, and is therefore Declared Fugitive and put to the Kings Corn.

In Saxony from whence we have borrowed most of our forms, Criminals flying from Justice and Refusing to Appear when Called, are sued in Judicio Bannitorum, which they distinguish into the first and second Banns. The Effect of the first, that the Contumacious party is held to be Convicted, and may be seized and Delivered up by any person within the District of the Judge who pronounced the law to stand by the punishment of the Crime charged upon him. Carpxov. Crim. part 3 Quast. 140 n. 95. But he may purge his Contumacy by appearing and clearing his Innocency within a Year. If he fail to do this, he lies Exposed to the second or high Bann. ibid. n. 34 & 35. Which hath the farther Effect, that he may be apprehended in any place within the Territory or Dominion of the Prince; he lies Infamous, and his goods are Confiscated, ibid. n. 117 & 118. Except the Childrens Legitim and the wifes Statutory portion thus left the first should be Forfeited, a fugitive Criminals Effects used to be Inventoried and sequestered. ibid. n. 128. But the Saxon law Requires to find this Judicium Bannitorium, that the Crime be Capital, *Carpxov. ibid. But if the Crime be not per nocturnum, that is if the Citation be given within 24 Hours of the Commission thereof, the Judge may immediately proceed to the Ban without farther Ceremony or Delay, ibid. n. 63. 82. Quast. 136 n. 80.

How persons are Declared out laws and Fugitives from this time in Scotland, is Explained infra page 188. The Effect whereof is, that the out law is disabled to stand a trial, and his whole Escheat falls to the King. And in some cases the life rent Escheat of persons denounced fugitives for Capital Crimes, falls to his Majesty, as for slaughter committed within Churches or Churchyards during Divine service Act 118 Parl. 12. J. 6. For one parties Killing Another during the Dependence of a Civil plea betwixt them Act 219 Parl. 14 J. 6. Albeit Regularly life rent Escheats belong to the respective Superiors. Such as Robat, Supply or Tutor communi with outlaws or persons denounced fugitives are liable to the same pains the out laws or fugitives might have been put to if they been apprehended, tried and Convicted Act 144 Parl. 12. J. 6.

Punishments Inflicted after a legal trial.

Such punishments may be Divided into ordinary, and Extraordinary or Arbitrary Punishments.

I.

Concerning Ordinary punishments Inflicted after Trial.

Ordinary punishments are those Expressly Determined by law, such are Either Corporal, or Civil.

Its a Axiom in the Civil law Concerning Corporal punishments, that no Man can oblige himself to any thing Under a Corporal pain: quia Nemo est Dominus suorum Memborum Corporal punishments are either Capital which takes away the life or not Capital which is only Corporal afflictive, as the Dockers
