

after they were Declared traitors. But William Cymough of Gowland was haleded and forstated 15 Decemb. 1601 for assisting his brother Alexander to keepe out the house of unningham heid against the Kings Commissiones afft the said Alexander had been charged under the paine of hafou to . Consider the former Conuersing with the Rebelling and further conuincing with a brother a forstated traitor, was found Relevant to infour the paine of treason 29 November 1634 John Portefield of Duncals . Some sayers Conceive that few left their lande to plindred 2d. the Excuse the living or Complicyng with a traitor. Pro p.
Parre. b. 117 n. 7. Adit ad Blar. I Lest Majest. Crim.
mon. 9 but this Defense was Ecceccially Rejected by the Parliament in the Marquess of Argiles case anno 1661.
Howeover it was found Relevant to Exculpatione from the guilt of treason by living somwhat with Merton Robt, that he was not a free Regent in the Merton was forced to go along with them and had no longer wile them then he coude recover his liberty 3 March 1604 James Horiford No person is liable for the Repet of or Corresponding with traitors and Robts, In effect he propon that he know the person Repet or Corresponding with Act 33 p. 4 Parl. W. B. M. All subiects are to do execell d. ligence to search and Approue all traitors and Robts t. they be out of the place where they live, and to Inform to the Great Magistrates to whom bounds they have by hem under the paine due to traitors and Robts Act 14 Parl. 12 f. 6. Because every one standt obllged to do his E. davours to keepe the country quiete whoso who Enjoy the protection of the law shoulde perswade such as opposite this duty to the King in taking such as brok Robt to him, is Employed in the very Nature of our Algiances. It is not only treason to harbour and Asyl Robts, but also such as Repet when required to affy the King against Merton Robts against his person are punissable as favoures of traitors Act 4 Parl. 13 that it be say as art and part of their Crimes, Crim. 29 29 Parl. 3 f. 4. Repet are Merton Robts who are Denom-29

Denounced, or agaynt whom Commissionis fine and swerd granted, or who are up in open Rebellion, Merton obffers on 1. Act 4 Parl. 1. 1. the laying the Playng from the Kings Rep of an proclamation commanding all borstors to go Wales, & farrinable as traitor, Merton obffers that the Almonies may be bled to the treason if not of felonie Nature farrinable. Reporters of his Majestys offff are alloguyl of treason Merton Crim. parl. 1. 6 5 14.

44 Repet who keepe out their houfes upon a publick Accound Regard the Kinge are guilty of high treason ad 2d. 16
f. 2. Whether they do so fundermately against the Kinge 1634 5 January 1615 Robert Stewart or Edward Almoner to Garrison their houfes upon such Accound 1 Feb 1615 Patrick L. E. Brdg.
Holding out being out and part in a place for a place Actions Repet also traitors who complyant farrinable for private cause or Quarrells, Refuse to surrender upon a Blang given by them to under the paine of treason by Vertue of Letters from the privy Council. And if the party who Refuses to after ward farrinable is only farrinable abituary, and Not as a traitor Merton Crim. parl. 1. 6 5 14

57 The Garrisoning of a houfe to defend it against the shottis who was Garrisoned in the Kings Name before publication of letters of fine and swerd, was not sustainted to farrinable but only to helpe to the paine of treason and for Refusing to farrinable commanded by the shottis. This was the farrining of Merton and det. 16 fining them in compained Robts, to Comyn in the right hand whom people usually go in bound for farrining of blottis and Robts, found the houfe to farrinable the guilt of treason without farrining there were 100 men at least under Robt or Merton, or under Merton or daily pay after publication of Letters offff is and swerd 28th feb 1674 McLeod of Sleat. Sir George Merton Crim. parl. 1. 6 5 1 obff on act 2 Parl. 1. 1. Crim. offended at this Detention. Because 14 Robt treason to garison houfes against the Kings houfes. And a Robt against Repet, bid Majestly ad Much as you like dote you if such a thing were a lordly any man might Defeat the Execution of law, by Garrisoning his houfe upon them pretreats. And albeit the Defending against