

Terms of the Law of Scotland.

Contingent	Terms of the Law of England.
Contingentation of marriages entered between	a principal.
Containing a cause in the Roll	A contingent or continuing a cause in court by an entry upon the records there.
Continuance of a cause held another day than the day make due to which a cause is continued	The continuance day.
Contradiction in adjecto. Inconsistency	Inconsistency.
Contract (a) (u)	By the title of contract.
Contract (written & sealed)	Personal covenant.
Contumacy by not coming in Court to answer an action or suit, or by default notwithstanding the order or order of court in excess of contumacy	in appearance, or default notwithstanding the rule or order of court.
Contumacy by neglect, subdiction or subdiction to pass	Default notwithstanding the rule or order of court after his trial or sale a default in becoming default and show good cause why he came not sooner.
Coprophyl debts or copyrs	Debtors giving capital debts who are jointly bound each of them for the same debt.
Copy or transcript of the original writing	Exemplification of some matter of record. An exemplum.
Corn (Cutting and carrying) from off the ground	Harvest of corn.
Corroboration (Bond of)	A collateral assurance or security confirmation.
Corruption (vid. Bartery.)	Cottagers.
Covenant (National)	National Association.
Court and Reckoning (action of)	Action of account. Which is almost said affidavit. For damages are not given by it, the judgment being only to account.
courts (ecclesiastical) — spiritual courts.	Before court.
courts (inferior) —	A court that can hold juries.
Court-comptroller	Proclamation of courts.
Courtly, vid. Lector.	First Consing.
Cousin Germanus	Second Consing.
Cousin Germanus once removed	To pray any thing.
Credit (to) any thing	Obligatio, Debitor.
Creditor — a crime capital or punishable with death	Fidelity.
Credit — a crime punishable with death	Burglary, Robbery, or Blasphemy of the fund.
Crops or profits of Ground Sown	Emblems (from the old Fr. word Emblauer to sow) signifies properly the profits of lands sown, viz corn sprung or put abo bo ground. But the word is sometimes used more largely for any produce that arises naturally from the ground, as Grapes, Fruits &c.
Crown (annexed to the)	Some things are merged in the crown; others remain a distinct interest in the sovereign.
Culpa cuique sua, non alteri nocere debet	Law will not suffer a person to take advantage of his own wrong.
Cumulative Jurisdiction	Concurrent Jurisdiction.
Cunnings	Conies.
Cunningair	A concave-warrant.
Curialory	Coffin.
Curialory ad Litem	Guardian, Guardian a fit substitute appointed to a law suit assigned by the constitution Infants. D. 5. 1. 2
Damages or wrong done by one private man to another	Action of trespass.
Damages (action of)	Trespass.
Damage a	Damage of cattle.
Whom strangers are taken in feeding upon breaking or otherwise spoiling another's corn, grass, wood and the like and say they are found in the shaft	which have been taken by couchant, to award damages and costs.
Cattle which have been so long on another's ground that they have lain down and are against feed	To give by jointer damages and costs.

Terms of the Law of Scotland.

Action de domino infra dicto, whereby the owner of a house that is let to fall, may be compelled at the instance of a neighbour who suffers hurt from the falling to his house to repair the ruinous house before further for the damage it may occasion.

Debt (De credit) Dowering, Lector or Executio

Dato, non concessio (vid. process & temporis)

Let it be granted for a remittit, that such a thing is true, or admitting for discovery sake that the said

it be done off, what quantum before soever a process commanding execution to be done against as peremptorily affainted.

Demise of the King.

Obligatio,

Bairman.

Debt determined.

Debt subsisting.

Debet (To)

Debet (To) impedit my Execution till

a certain day

To debts or arrears, give judgement, ordain

Decreed, or doised.

To give judgement with a capitata or a stay of Execution till a certain day.

To rule, or adjudge, to follow.

Decision in Termes (vid. Authority)

Decision, or prudique.

Declarator, Decret of declarator

Summons of declarator

Declaratory

Decretor of Judge

Decision of the court

Decretum arbitrii sentence, discernitudo

Decret of all debtors

A condemnatory Decret

Decretum, or upon compunctions of both parties

Decretum defens of the party

Decretum superceding Execution

and payments out of lands

Indictment, (vid. Rent, valuation, Burden) Reportos.

Decretum, or grant a deed

To rule, or adjudge.

A place, an impediment, or bar of action, stopped

a good place.

Declarator, or temporary

Declarator ipsius are either in disability, or abatement

A declarator ipsius in disability is either in the jurisdiction of the court, which is sometimes termed a place, as when a court of action did not extend

Jurisdiction of such a court, or when a cause was alleged in any court that shall believe in another as it belongs to the person of the plaintiff as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in reality, and by the name of the plaintiff, as he is in

Terms of the Law of England.

a writ de domino reparando or de domo reparan-

do.